NEW DISTRICT TAX BILL. -It is stated that the new tax bill for the District of Columbia has been found to be inoperative, and as Congress has now adjourned the defects cannot be remedied until the next session. It is said that many of the principal property holders have been aware for some time that the loose wording of the bill was such as to prevent its provisions being carried into effect, but did not consider that it was their business to commu nicate information to Congress on the subject. It is not improbable that a meeting of property owners will be called to a few days to take measures to resist the enforcement of the act. In the meantime many of the property holders have determined to make no return of the lists which have been left with them by the assessors. The law is very unpopular, and it will certainly not be complied with if it can be avoided. If it shall be ascertained that the law cannot be enforced, the commissioners will have to fall back upon the old tax law, or such parts of it as have not been absolutely repealed. This is said to be the case with the license tax, whereby a very large amount of money will be

The following constitute the commission appointed to frame a new form of government for the District of Columbia: Senators Spencer, Windom and Whyte, and Representatives Clymer. Hunton and Hendel.
